

Editor's Message

Elizabeth Nelson

I'm pleased to share Volume 36, Number 1 of Library Leadership & Management. This issue includes articles that cover everything from training to planning. It is my hope that if you are a reader of LL&M, you will also consider being an author. If you have an article to submit, or even just an idea, feel free to reach out to me. I'd love to help you share your work and research.

Library Leadership & Management is currently seeking an assistant editor. This is an opportunity to work with authors, peer reviewers, and the editor to publish a high-quality journal, with value-added educational content targeted at the Core membership, but also relevant to the larger library community. Applications will be accepted now through April 10, 2022. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter with the names and contact information for three references, via email to Elizabeth Nelson (enelson@mchenry.edu).

If you are looking for other ways to get involved, there are plenty of opportunities. Please contact me for further information.
