This issue's article covers a lot of ground. In Archiving the Past, Citing the Future, Guinn looks at The Association of Professional School Librarians in Indonesia and the work that has been done to update the organization's mission and vision. Rifai and Ismayati discuss the implementation of a professional certification program to build and strengthen librarianship as a professional career in Indonesia in Reshaping Librarianship as a Career through Professional Certification: An Indonesian Issue. In Reflecting on the Impact of Hybrid Work on an Academic Library Using the Socio-Ecological Model, Tagge, Martin, and McGuinness look at the impact of hybrid work from the individual, interpersonal, community, and societal levels. And in Cataloging with Confidence, Swenson and Parks discuss the benefits of mentoring for novice and experienced catalogers.

I hope you enjoy Volume 38, Number 1 of Library Leadership and Management. Happy reading!
